ARTS & HISTORY

The arts district in downtown offers lots to explore. We celebrate the arts in all its forms. Join us on First Fridays for FREE food, fun, live music and art. Look for our painted murals, fire hydrants and even painted dumpster enclosures! Come for our signature 'Taste of the Arts' street festival, an annual celebration of the rich cultural heritage of the community.

FARMS & AGRICULTURE

Wonder where your food is grown? It's likely that whatever you ate today came from our area. Home to more than 250 crops and the nation's leading dairy producer, Visalia and Tulare County are the places to learn about agriculture. Visit cheese-making facilities, drive past dozens of dairies, see acres of cotton, corn, apricots, nuts, oranges and more! And of course, end the day by dining at one of our many restaurants that will surely give you a 'taste' of the local flavor. Need a recommendation? Ask the Visitors Bureau.

COMMUNITY

OVERVIEW

Nestled in the foothills below the majestic Sierra Nevada, Visalia is the Gateway to Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks.

The city’s natural charm and gracious, vibrant community captivate visitors year-round with experiences highlighted by live entertainment, stunning art, rich history, and world-class restaurants.

Savor Visalia’s fresh from the farm cuisine at one of our many sidewalk cafes, take a stroll along Main Street, and tour the nation’s richest agricultural region. Take on hiking, biking, rafting, or a snowshoeing adventures, and relax afterward with a glass of our celebrated local brews. With beautiful weather, friendly people, and hundreds of options to explore, all we need is the explorer—you.
